CACL Antigonish and East Novability Society for Persons With Disabilities invite you to the 1st Annual Business Ability Banquet on Thursday November 6th at 5:30 p.m. at the Claymore Inn, Antigonish. We are excited to announce Mark Wafer as this year's keynote speaker. Toronto native, Mark Wafer, is an internationally sought after speaker and successful business owner and consultant, on the economic benefit of hiring persons with disabilities. His message is clear and direct to business owners; expressing the business-case as to why persons with disabilities should be sought out and retained in the workplace. Below is the banquet registration. We look forward to seeing you at the Business Ability Banquet on November 6th. For a brief bio of Mark, please see: <http://www.conference-board.org/bio/index.cfm?bioid=3054>
